Ecclesia and JDC Group start cooperation

- JDC wins Ecclesia for its platform technology for retail clients.

- The Ecclesia Group companies are expanding the digital service depth in the private insurance business through JDC's own broker management program iCRM.

- Five-year contract improves digital offerings for private customers.

JDC Group AG, one of the largest service and technology platforms for financial service providers in Europe, and the Ecclesia Group, the largest German insurance broker for companies and institutions, are now cooperating on business administration in the private customer insurance business.

Through Ecclesia Gruppe Vorsorgemanagement GmbH as contracting partner with JDC Group AG, Ecclesia Group companies receive the full JDC platform as a broker management program for their private customer business. This increases the administration efficiency for the brokerage companies and their customers through a fast and consolidated view of all contracts and documents in the well-known data depth of the leading JDC platform technology.

"We are pleased to have won Ecclesia, the largest German broker for our platform solution," says Dr. Sebastian Grabmaier, CEO of JDC Group AG, commenting on the cooperation. "After the brokers of Lufthansa, BMW, Boehringer and Volkswagen Bank as well as Ecclesia now, we are ready to further scale our leading platform technology to other large brokers and their group companies."

"By cooperating with JDC, we are taking the next step in the digital transformation and leveraging efficiency advantages for our customers and for us," adds Frank Buschmann, Managing Director of Ecclesia Gruppe Vorsorgemanagement GmbH. "The platform gives us the opportunity to provide new services for our customers that are expected in the digital world. With this decision, we are securing our claim to achieve the best possible customer benefit in a future-proof manner."
